

like a baleful Phoenix, I rise from my chair. Senator Lindsay, is your amendment drafted and up on the desk? Mr. Speaker, in the spirit that Senator Bohlke has created by her heartfelt expression, I'm going to withdraw that amendment and all the others that I have pending.

CLERK: You said all of them. Right, Senator?

SPEAKER BAACK: They are withdrawn.

CLERK: The next amendment then, Senator Lindsay, you had two amendments printed, Senator.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Those are the two that came from E & R? Is that correct?

CLERK: They were submitted earlier, yes, they were drafted upstairs.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Withdraw.

SPEAKER BAACK: They are withdrawn.

CLERK: Senator Landis, you have the next amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Madam President, then I have...

SPEAKER BAACK: Mr. President, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, excuse me.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you.

CLERK: Senator Bohlke, Rasmussen, Schimek, Landis, Day, Hillman, this is the original version, I think, Senator, before you tried to amend the Chambers amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senators Lindsay, Chambers, and Rasmussen would move to amend.
